

CPA Firm Night

Representatives of several local and Indianapolis firms were present to talk to students about internship opportunities, and accounting in general. This was an excellent opportunity for students to brush up on their networking skills and their interviewing skills.